Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Council have at their Meeting held on the 10th April 1920, resolved that for the better efficiency and management of the Public Conveyance Department of the Municipality it may be placed under the charge of the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Bangalore City

It is now seen that the powers of the Officers and men of the Public Conveyance Department are inadequate and that without proper co-operation of the Police, necessary control over the conveyances and their drivers cannot be well maintained. If the Department is transferred to the charge of the City Assistant Superintendent of Police, it is very likely that better help can be secured from the Police in enforcing the provisions of the Regulation and the Rules thereunder. It therefore seems desirable to try the change for a time, a suitable allowance being paid by the Municipality to the Assistant Superintendent for being in charge of the Department.

Vol 213-19-9

In reply to your letter No R 12939/Ml.213-19-8 dated 19th May 1921 about the transfer to the Police of the registering of the Hackney Carriages, I have the honour to state that it is reported that in the Civil and Military Station, the Municipal Council are maintaining all the subordinate staff -executive and clerical- and paying an allowance of Rs.30/- to the District Superintendent of Police, as Registering Officer. It is further reported that there is a proposal in the Civil and Military Station to assign the work entirely to the Police. The arrangement made there might be made here also, ^{i.e.} the Municipal Council might, for the present, maintain the subordinate staff both executive and clerical and place them under the control of the Assistant Superintendent of Police, giving him an allowance as Registering Officer

Letter No.285 dated the 3rd July 1920 from the President, Bangalore City Municipal Council, submitting for sanction a copy of the resolution of the Municipal Council, proposing that, for the better efficiency and management of the Public Conveyance Department of the Municipality it may be placed under the charge of the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Bangalore City and stating that, if the Department is transferred to the charge of the City Assistant Superintendent of Police, it is very likely that better help can be secured from the Police in enforcing the provisions of the Regulation and the Rules thereunder and that it therefore seems desirable to try the ^Ncharge for a time, a suitable allowance being paid by the Municipality to the Assistant Superintendent of Police for being in charge of the Department.
